The Tragedy of Waiting for a Perfect Time

Ecclesiastes 11:1-10

This world is full of overly cautious people who are waiting for a perfect time before they do anything.

- I. Many churches are waiting for a perfect time before they expand inadequate physical facilities, enlarge their work, and increase their usefulness.

- II. Many Christians are waiting for a perfect time before they accept a place of service and begin to serve God in an effective way in the church.

- III. Many Christians are waiting for a perfect time before they begin to honor God with the minimum portion of their substance that he requires, the tithe.

- IV. Many Christians are waiting for a perfect time before they attempt to win the lost to Christ.

- V. Many Christians who are not affiliated with a church are waiting for a perfect time before they unite with a church in the community where they now live.

- VI. Many unsaved are waiting for a perfect time before they accept Christ as Lord and Savior.

Hebrews 3:7-8 (NKJV)
